PLACING AGREEMENT DATED 17 FEBRUARY 2009

Parties

Issuer: The Company

The Placing Agent will place the Convertible Notes with not less than six Placees who and their respective ultimate beneficial owners are third parties independent of the Company and connected persons of the Company and its subsidiaries or any of their respective associates. In consideration of the services of the Placing Agent, the Company shall pay to the Placing Agent a fee equal to 1% of the aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Notes for which it has procured Placees to subscribe. None of the Placees will become a substantial shareholder (as defined under the Listing Rules) of the Company upon conversion of the Convertible Notes.

Each of the Placing Agent and its ultimate beneficial owner is a third party independent of the Company and are not connected persons of the Company and its subsidiaries or any of their respective associates.

Conditions of the Placing

Completion of the Placing is conditional upon:

- (i) the Listing Committee of the Stock Exchange having granted (either unconditionally or subject only to conditions to which the Company and the Placing Agent do not reasonably object) the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Conversion Shares; and
- (ii) (if required) the approval of the Bermuda Monetary Authority of the issue of the Convertible Notes and the Conversion Shares.

If either of the above conditions is not fulfilled on or before 31 March 2009 (or such date as the Company and the Placing Agent may agree), the Placing Agreement will terminate and the Placing will not proceed.

Basis of Initial Conversion Price

The Initial Conversion Price of HK$0.26 per Share represents:

- (i) a premium of approximately 4.42% over the closing price of HK$0.249 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange on the Last Trading Day;
- (ii) a premium of approximately 9.70% over the average closing price of approximately HK$0.237 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange for the last five trading days up to and including the Last Trading Day; and
- (iii) a premium of approximately 13.54% over the average closing price of approximately HK$0.229 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange for the last ten trading days up to and including the Last Trading Day.

The Initial Conversion Price was determined after arm's length negotiation between the Company and the Placing Agent with reference to the prevailing market prices of the Shares.

Reasons for the Placing and use of proceeds

Assuming all the Convertible Notes are successfully placed by the Placing Agent, the total gross proceeds from the Placing amount to HK$72,800,000. After deducting related expenses of approximately HK$900,000, the net proceeds from the placing amount to approximately HK$71,900,000 and the net price per Conversion Share is approximately HK$0.26.

As announced by the Company on 12 September 2008, 18 September 2008 and 12 November 2008, the terms of the Existing Convertible Notes have been amended to allow for their early redemption at the option of the Company and since then, the Company has already redeemed Existing Convertible Notes with a principal amount of HK$13,000,000. It is intended that the net proceeds of the Placing will be used for the redemption of the outstanding principal amount of the Existing Convertible Notes of HK$72,500,000 together with accrued interests.

The Directors consider that the Placing represents a good opportunity for the Company to replace the Existing Convertible Notes with the Convertible Notes, which will reduce the overall cost of funding to the Group. Upon the early redemption of the Existing Convertible Notes before the end of March 2009, there will be a net saving in interest expenses of the Company of approximately HK$2,300,000. Moreover, the interest rate of the Convertible Notes of 2% per annum is low in comparison with the current rates being offered to the Group by banks and other financial institutions on similar borrowings and the longer repayment term of the Convertible Notes will give the Company more flexibility in its financial planning. While full conversion of the Convertible Notes will cause the shareholding of the existing Shareholders to be diluted by approximately 16.60%, which is approximately 1.62 times more than that of the Existing Convertible Notes (before their partial redemption), the Conversion Shares are expected to be issued over a 5-year period and after taking into account the net saving in interest expenses, the low interest rate and the longer repayment term of the Convertible Notes, the Directors consider the dilutive effect of the Convertible Notes to be acceptable. Based on the foregoing, the Directors therefore consider that the terms of the Placing Agreement (including the Initial Conversion Price) are, on balance, fair and reasonable and in the interest of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

Mandate to allot and issue the Conversion Shares

The Conversion Shares falling to be issued upon exercise of the Conversion Rights will be issued under the general mandate granted to the Directors at the annual general meeting of the Company held on 26 August 2008 which permits the issue and allotment of up to 281,381,292 Shares, representing approximately 20% of the issued share capital of the Company as at 26 August 2008. No part of such mandate had been utilized as at the date of this announcement and no shareholders' approval would be required for the issue and allotment of the Conversion Shares upon the exercise of the Conversion Rights.

As at the date of this announcement, there are no outstanding options, warrants or other equity derivatives of the Company in issue.

Effect on shareholding structure

As at the date of this announcement, the issued share capital of the Company comprised 1,406,906,460 Shares.

Based on the Initial Conversion Price of HK$0.26 per Share and assuming full conversion of the Convertible Notes, the Convertible Notes will be convertible into 280,000,000 Conversion Shares, representing approximately 19.90% of the issued share capital of the Company as at the date of this announcement and approximately 16.60% of the issued share capital of the Company as enlarged by the issue of the Conversion Shares at the Initial Conversion Price.
